CHANGES SEEN IN PICKING OF JURY FOR LOCAL COURT

15 or 20 Representative Persons May Be Selected to Serve on Call

CASE BRINGS UP LAW

Edward E. Gray Preparing to Submit Proposal to Officials

Change in this city's system of calling jurors to serve in the local court appears necessary today following a case before Jeudge George R. Crane yesterday.

A group of about 15 or 20 representative men and women may be selceted for this duty and there is likelihood of the jurors being paid.

The proposed change is brought to light as the result of a speeding case yesterday against L. K. Rosenberger, whose attorney refused to accept the jury as it was presented when the trial was opened before Judge George R. Crane.

Edward E Gray, city attorney, is preparing a proposal which he will submit to Judge Crane and Chief of Police J. F. Sawyer for consideration.

The proposal calls for a list of representative citizens being recommended as capable jurors and this list sent to the county clerk for approval.

The county clerk is authorized by law to submit at the beginning of each year a panel of jurors, from which the jury is selected as each case arises. Physically disabled and aged persons have been included in panels and recently local officials have been ignoring the panel.

In the case yesterday, 12 citizens, many whose names were not on the panel were sworn in. Attorney for the defendant hung his objection on that technicality and the case was postponed.

The law is not definite as to the number of names on the panel, but it does specify that all persons listed in the panel are to be called and the jury selected from this group in court.

By submitting a smaller number of proposed names for the panel, the entire group can be summoned without inconvenience to so many.

Mr. Gray explained that the law says the jurors are to be paid for all justice court cases. He has not determined if this also means police court trials.

If the jurors are to be paid, the fines on violators would have to be large enough to include the cost of trial by jury.

Chaffey Orchestra Will Play Jan. 27

Tuesday, Jan. 27 will be another important day for followers of the Chaffey concert orchetra. Fred Wilding, director, said today that the concert will be given that night in the Chaffey auditorium.

An outstanding soloist will be engaged to present the feature numbers.

CITY'S NEON SIGN WILL BE STUDIED

Council Hears Report on Suggested Project by R. G. Manley

Advertising the name of Upland in a Neon sign on Foothill boulevard at Second avenue, as proposed by Richard G. Manley, city service manager, met with favor at the city council meeting last night.

The sign, if purchased on a cash basis, would cost about $345, and about $700 if obtained over a period of years.

Mr. Manley was instructed to get more data on the two methods of purchasing. It was pointed out if the city buys the sign for cash, the cost of maintenance would have to be borne, while with the other method the company would maintain and repair it.

It is proposed to place a sign on the boulevard as soon as possible.

The city council last night took over the responsibility of maintaining the Boy Scout lodge on Third avenue. Previously the Lions club sponsored the building activities, but the city was given full right to the property last night.

Fifteen hundred parking directing "buttons" will be purchased and placed on the pavement where the white lines at present mark the proper parking stalls.

Upland People Are Giving To Relief Fund; Much Yet Needed

At noon today, within less than three days after the Red Cross call to the nation to aid in alleviating the acute distress and suffering among fellow-citizens in the drought-stricken areas of the United States, Upland had made available for immediate use the sum of $397.50. Of this amount, the local Red Cross chapter contributed $100 on the day the call was issued, the remaining $297.50 having been contributed by Upland individuals and organizations.

Three individual $50 donations have been made, with other generous amounts being given by clubs and organizations, and a number of individuals have made smaller subscriptions.

Mrs. W. B. West, chairman of the local chapter, and the executive board are well pleased with the ready response being made, and hope the full quota of $1100 will be raised within a short time.

A check for the full amount of the subscriptions up to noon today, $397.50, was forwarded this afternoon to Red Cross headquarters for immediate use.

The needs of the destitute and suffering people are acute and cruelly real, and since the only source of relief will be the American Red Cross, it becomes a moral responsibility, an inescapable duty, for those who have to give to this fund to aid those who are in dire need.

Contributions are being received by both banks. There yet is more than $700 to be raised.

LAW ON SALESMEN NEARING REALITY

Representatives of Seven Cities Will Meet January 22 For Discussion

Further progress in the regulation of house-to-house solicitors is expected to be made at a meeting of representatives of the seven cities in this district at a meeting in La Verne, Jan. 22.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, received word today from Charles R. Stead, Pomona city attorney, that he is preparing a suggested ordinance, incorporating some of the features practiced at present by Pomona.

Mr. Gray has prepared a proposed ordinance which is believed to be more strict and the two measures will be the basis for consideration at the LaVerne meeting.

Goal of the cities to be able to require all house-to-house solicitors to subject themselves to fingerprinting and an examination of their record before being given a permit to "work" in a city.

Tax Proposal May Be Adopted at Meeting Held in North Today

Conferences in Sacramento today and tomorrow may mean much to San Bernardino county taxpayers. C. E. Grier and John Andreson, supervisors, are in the capital with the aim of working out a plan to relieve the burden on real property through creation of a sales tax.

Mr. Grier's proposal calls for the state to take over financing of the schools, instead of the present method of taxes on real estate. The Tax Equalization association of which he is vice-president, will meet tomorrow.

Motsinger and Robert Nesbit. Mr. Klusman was re-elected president, and Mr. Motsinger vice-president with H. C. Wentworth cashier and Mrs. Helen Todd Peterson, assistant cashier.

G. P. McCorkle, secretary, reported affairs of the bank in high class condition.

FRUIT THIEF USES KNIFE; ARRESTED

Colored Man Sent to Jail For Activity Here; Terrors of Night Work Cited

When C. B. Jordan sought to admonish Eddie Mitchell, colored, for taking fruit from an orange grove at Foothill boulevard and San Antonio avenue, the alleged thief flashed a mean looking pocket knife and asked what Jordan was going to do about it.

Only a few oranges were in Mitchell's possession, but the attitude of the man led Jordan to call police, and today the county jail has him for a resident for 25 days. Bural Adams was Mitchell's companion, and he was arrested for possession and intoxication and fined $60 or 60 days by Judge George R. Crane. Arrests were made by Officers C. S. Lehman and J. L. Loch.

Some of the terrors of being a night patrolman facing suspects anywhere in the city at any time of the night were related by J. F. Sawyer, chief of police, at the city council meeting last night. He cited an example of how Officer Dark approached a car, parked near the junior high school early one morning this week and questioned the two men in the machine.

"They didn't resist, but they could have had a gun and fired," Chief Sawyer said. "What chance has a lone policeman if one of a group like that was all ready to fire?"

Dark arrested the two youths for investigation, which revealed they had stolen a car. A theory was advanced that the youths were planning to rob a store in the neighborhood. George Holling and John Bryant, Inglewood, were the two arrested and returned to Indio, where the car was stolen.

About half a dozen persons have been arrested here and in San Antonio canyon on charges of throwing snowballs at motorists.

S. W. Teague, Ninth street, reported to police that someone threw a stone through the windshield of his Packard car.

Annual Meeting of Hospital Auxiliary

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the San Antonio Community hospital have been notified by the auxiliary secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, of the regular meeting to be held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon in the hospital library.

FISH HATCHERY IN STATE ASSURED AS WORK GETS REWARD

Efforts of Local Men Bring Appropriation; Project May Be Near Here

COST TO BE ABOUT $20,000

San Gabriel Canyon Selected as Tentative Site For Rearing Ponds

If efforts of local Waltonians and other Izaak Walton league members are successful, a $20,000 federal fish hatchery will be established in San Gabriel canyon for the propagation of fish for all southland streams.

California has been alloted such a fish hatchery and a site in San Gabriel canyon has been recommended by officials of the Southern California council of the league, and the recommendation is supported by effective data and the findings of a special engineer.

Leigh Thompson, secretary of the council, announced that a strong case for the placing of the hatchery in the nearby canyon has been presented to Henry O'Malley, U. S. commissioner of fisheries.

With the data concerning the canyon are also figures on the present apportionment of fish hatcheries in the state as compared with population. Mr. Thompson pointed out the south quarter of the state has four hatcheries and 50 per cent of the population while the remainder of the state has 24 hatcheries.

Roger Dalton, engineer, made a special survey for the league and has plotted out the proposed dam sites and possible fishing ponds. In the canyon there are more than 100 miles of streams in which fish could be raised.

Flood control department of Los Angeles county has pledged cooperation and has given the league assurance that water will be left in all ponds and that natural conditions will be maintained for the fish propagation.

The proposed establishment of the hatchery was considered at the council meeting in The Sycamores Tuesday night, and the San Gabriel canyon site was given a strong endorsement.

Hanson Tells of New California Mentor

Kenneth Hanson is interested in "Navy Bill" Ingram the new football coach at University of California, and they were team mates on a professional team, playing at Visalia in 1920.

Mr. Hanson played center and Ingram was engaged to play fullback. From Los Angeles, several of the players including Hanson and Ingram went north for the game.

"He is a great big fellow, and every time he took the ball in that game he ripped off four or five yards," Mr. Hanson said. The local man was a member of the "wonder" team at California.

Legion's Rest Camp at Victorville Ready

The Victorville rest camp for disabled World War veterans is ready to receive persons, according to word received here by American Legion men. One cabin is completed and another one will be finished in a few days, according to Earl E. Marsh.

Preference will be given veterans of this district in accepting persons for occupancy of the cabins.

Campaign Is Launched To Get New Federal Building

Campaign to secure a new postoffice building for Upland was launched today as the chamber of commerce directors began a new year of acactivity. One of the major projects may also be the improving of the appearance of the city along the southern boundary line, extending from the Upland Lemon Growers' association building, west to Euclid avenue.

Options on five pieces of land, suitable sites for a new Federal building here, have been sent to the offices in Washington, D. C., it was revealed at the chamber directors' meeting. Now is the time to create interest in the project and the securing of such a building was suggested as one of the important projects, it was announced.

Edward E. Gray. who pointed out the new building is being considered for Upland, explained that the lease on the present location extends three years longer.

By concerted effort, he declared, it is possible to assure Upland of a new, conveniently located suitably equipped office, at the end of the three year period or sooner.

Clair E. Kirk, secretary, said the options had been obtained and sent east. It is known that the five cities in the citrus district in the county are in line for federal buildings.

John Shepperson, a new director, looked upon the improving or removal of the buildings along A streets as one of the chamber's most aggressive projects.

Efforts have been made to get a new Santa Fe depot and Mr. Shepperson's statements added new life to the campaign to rid the city limits of such a structure.

L. R. Bradley, the new chamber president, set the next meeting as the time when each director should bring a list of proposed projects and the chamber's 1931 campaign be definitely outlined.

EPISCOPALIANS IN ANNUAL GATHERING

Dr. Foster Presides For 11th Time Over Group; Gain Is Large

For the eleventh time Dr. Bert Foster presided over the annual meeting of St. Mark's parish last night. He said the reports of the various societies showed the total income for this year over 10 years ago was more than double and the gifts to missions and charities was five times as much.

He commended the parishioners on their loyalty and united interest in every new work undertaken by the vestry and said he doubted if any other parish could show such an advance over 10 years ago—free from misunderstanding or irritation of any kind.

The meeting was held in St. Mark's parish house, beginning with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock, served by the Ladies Guild. Mrs. A. J. Colgan, president of the guild, was responsible for the dinner and had a faithful group of helpers.

The following were elected to the vestry and board of trustees: The Rector, G. A. Hanson, L. A. Weller, H. S. Campbell, W. S. Avery, Dr. J. A. Colgan, Glenn D. Smith, H. M. Shattuck, J. W. Smith. The officers are the same as last year.

The delegates to diocesan convention to meet in Pasadena on January 28 and 29 are: G. A. Hanson, L. A. Weller, W. S. Avery, H. M. Shattuck and Glenn D. Smith. The representatives to deanery convocation are: G. A. Hanson, W. S. Avery, Dr. A. J. Colgan, Mrs. Phipps, Mrs. Charles Deverts.

Votes of thanks were passed to the ladies for the dinner; the choir, for their services; The Upland News and the Daily Report for their many courtesies, and a rising vote of thanks to the rector and Mrs. Foster.

A very happy gathering closed with the benediction pronounced by the rector.

Rev. Farmer Attends Ministers' Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilhoite will leave next week for Portland, Ore., where they will remain until March 1.

Fred Jacobs Rides In Wheel Chair As Recovery Continues

Fred H. Jacobs, 401 Eighth avenue, is today enjoying life in a wheel chair, making rapid progress from the bed where he has been confined until recently for seven months.

He is "learning" to walk through a specially devised apparatus and yesterday he lifted a foot off the floor for the first time since he was injured in an automobile crash last June. Confined in the hospital for months and now at his home, Mr. Jacobs is looking forward to when he will be able to wheel about and eventually resume his work as an instructor at Chaffey.

Asked how he is, Mr. Jacobs invariably replies cheerily as though nothing was wrong. This spirit has taken him far and friends are eagerly awaiting his return to normal life.

The wheel chair was received Sunday.

CHINO BASIN WILL BE FORMED FEB. 9

City and Water Companies To Be Represented at Assn. Meeting

Plans are being made today for the organization meeting of the Chino Basin Protective association to be held at Chino Feb. 9, at which representatives of Upland and the larger water companies in this citrus district will be present.

Richard G. Manley, city service manager, was authorized by the city council last night to represent the city and as nine directors are to be elected, it is expected that he will be on the board from this city. The council placed him in nomination through a form submitted to the officials for that purpose.

Albert C. Reynolds, manager of the San Antonio Water company, is temporary chairman of the tentative organization, and is assisting in the preparations for the meeting.

Specialists in the various phases of water and engineering will be on the speaking program. An all-day meeting will be held, with the speaking in the morning and organization in the afternoon. Purpose of the association is to protect the local basin from outside agencies seeking to transport water from here to other districts.

Man Arrives Here to Visit Brother; Hears He Is Dead

Because he was enroute to California by automobile and could not be reached at the time of the death on Jan. 3 of his brother, John E. Campbell, Prof. W. H. Campbell arrived here Monday from White Pigeon, Mich., without knowing his brother, who was 94 years old, had passed away.

Upon reaching Upland, the visitor stopped at the postoffice to ask directions to John E. Campbell's home and there for the first time heard of his brother's death.

Professor Campbell, formerly public examiner for school teachers in Chicago, is now retired and lives in White Pigeon. Although well into his eighties, he motored alone to California and will remain here for a few weeks. It had been five years since he had seen his late brother.

BRADLEY HEAD OF CHAMBER IN NEW ELECTION TODAY

R. G. Manley New Vice-President, With Kirk Re-elected Secretary

ACTIVE PROGRAM STARTS

New Directors Take Office, Following Meeting Wednesday Night

L. R. Bradley is today the new president of the Upland chamber of commerce. R. G. Manley is vice-president and Clair E. Kirk was re-elected secretary-treasurer as the new directors met with the six holdover directors in the first meeting of the new administration this noon.

Speed with which the new organization launched into the 1931 program was a feature of the gathering. Glenn M. Atwood, who led the civic body through a successful year, called for election of a new president. Mr. Bradley has served previously as president and later as secretary and has an outstanding record of civic service. He is manager of the Upland Lemon Growers' association and is a former president of the Upland Rotary club.

The new board met today following the annual meeting in the Upland Woman's club Wednesday night at which announcement was made of the election of the six new directors. Those elected were Mr. Bradley, Mr. Manley, John Shepperson, E. H. Gibson, Fred E. Draper and Clyde DuVall.

As the new directors took office, six men retired from the board, these including Walter Allen, Roy Karr, J. W. Mehl, Robert Klindt, I. J. Linkey and Vernon V. Paine.

Following the election this noon, Edward E. Gray and F. H. Manker spoke of the successful work in the past year and urged united effort on a well planned civic program.

Of special interest at the annual meeting was the address by Floyd A. Young, government meterologist, who told of the agitation for improved heaters, and the heating situation in general.

Improvements can be made, he said, but he cautioned against radical changes or any improvement that would be prohibitive in cost. Competition among the present firms producing heaters, he said, will eventually result in a type of heater that will solve the smudge problem.

C. E. Grier, toastmaster, called for discussion and asked for remarks from T. R. Woodbridge, R. O. Price and John D. Howe. Joseph Simons asked Mr. Young questions concerning coke heaters and other forms of handling the problem.

Glenn M. Atwood, president, presided, and reviewed work of the chamber during the year. Musical numbers were presented by a Fontana Woman's quartet.

A dinner served by members of the Upland Woman's club met with approval and received many comments.

HUNTER PHARMACY SALE ANNOUNCED

Cucamonga Drug Store Purchased by Man From Placentia

Sale of Hunter's Pharmacy, well known establishment in Cucamonga, was announced Thursday, details of the transaction just having been completed, although the deal was practically made several days ago. The drugstore was sold by Kenneth Hunter to M. I. McCarty of Placentia, he having taken possession of the business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarty and their daughter have moved to Cucamonga and are located in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, which they have leased.

Mr. Hunter has been in Cucamonga for four years and during that time has built up a successful business. He and Mrs. Hunter moved last week to Ontario but Mr. Hunter has not announced his future plans.

California As Great Game State of Future Is Predicted

California of the future can be a state of great resources for the hunter and fishermen and all that it will take to bring sportsmen here, instead of forcing local sportsmen to go elsewhere, will be a few seasons of concerted tree planting, proper legislation and cooperation by all sportsmen's organizations.

James G. Hammond national field representative of the Izaak Walton League, painted such a picture at the meeting of the Waltonian chapter representatives in The Sycamores Tuesday night. He told of how the New England states are reclaiming their forests and streams until now that district is destined to be one of the greatest recreational sections. Pennsylvania's mountains were barren a few years ago, but a systematic tree planting program has resulted in that state having a plentiful supply of deer and other game. Wisconsin's record is just as impressive, he said. Germany planted trees and some communities in that country have sold enough lumber to pay all taxes and to return to the inhabitants a small dividend.

It was Mr. Hammond's declaration that planting of trees and establishment of game refuges would provide sportsmen here an abundant supply of fish and game. He also pointed out the necessity of proper legislation.

Mr. Hammond also gave a word picture of the national organization of the league, stating that 100,000 members now belong to 2,400 chapters and that the group is a great national power. Offices are maintained in Chicago, from which point conservation projects are started and directed.

He described the national officers as highly capable leaders "working heart and soul" in the furtherance of conservation throughout the nation.

His address was the feature of the first meeting of the Southern California council of the Izaak Walton league, under this new name, it formerly being the Orange Belt council. Dave Vasbinder, president, and Leigh Thompson, secretary, were in charge of the meeting.

An interesting speaker, Mr. Hammond recited the experiences of various states and communities which had reclaimed their forests, established refuges for game birds and were now enjoying the pleasures of a plentiful supply of fish and game.

He was firm in the declaration that California could have such a condition through the united efforts of all conservationists.

Once More—The Smudge Question

The smudge evil this year having been greater than for many years past, the amount of discussion regarding same has been proportionately greater and more emphatic. The meeting in Los Angeles to discuss ways and means of getting rid of the evil was attended by a large number of interested people—growers and others. Certain things were resolved and committees were appointed at that meeting, but what the outcome will be is not to be known until later. It seems all are agreed on one thing—that smudge is very disagreeable and expensive. But all do not agree on the method of eradicating it. This News Guy does not pose as an authority on the matter. Therefore we are printing herewith an editorial by J. L. Matthews in his paper, the Covina Argus. Here is his idea in the matter and it is worth reading:

"A city council, several chambers of commerce, and other organizations in Southern California, are sending representatives this week to a parley that has been arranged by the Los Angeles chamber of commerce on the smudge evil. This question has been acute at times in past years, but never has it reached to the point of discussion such as is being planned at the present time. Sooner or later, this question must be settled.

"The ranchers say, in full truth, that no other method of saving the citrus crop from frost has been devised. Orchard heaters must be lighted, or Southern California loses one of its greatest sources of revenue. The ranchers have never succeeded in heating the groves without producing great volumes of carbon in the air. It is not only smoke, but greasy smoke, ruinous to all fabrics. Doctors declare that the smoke is injurious to health—that it creates a condition in the lungs favorable to pneumonia. The boards of health of Southern California may be a powerful factor in bringing about the enactment of laws in the present session of legislature that will be aimed at the curbing, or the abolition, of this evil.

"In the citrus districts, the question is much the same as the old argument as to which came first originally—the hen or the egg? Did the citrus industry create the towns? Can the towns subsist without the citrus industry? Any amount of inconvenience should be endured philosophically, according to the growers, in order that the crop may be saved, for, without the crop, there can be no money with which to build and expand communities, maintain schools, build roads, buy automobiles. The dresses and window drapes and rugs that are damaged by the smudge were bought out of the proceeds of the orange and lemon crops, they point out. No smudging, no crop, no window curtains and drapes, spoiled or unspoiled. The towns are created for the citrus industry, and not the citrus industry for the towns.

"In chess, we call this a stalemate—neither side can move without disaster. This is true so far as the citrus-raising communities are concerned, and would end the argument if it were not for the fact that the smoke is not by any means confined to the citrus area. In fact, the prevailing winds are generally in a direction that concentrates the smoke in that part of the coastal plain that is strictly residential and not agricultural or horticultural, including metropolitan Los Angeles. The smoke volume rolls out over Los Angeles and Long Beach harbors, making it dangerous for ships to attempt to get in or out, delaying the loading and unloading of cargoes, with subsequent demurrage charges. It makes railroading dangerous, and at least one crash of an airplane this winter has been directly attributed to the smoke blanket.

"In past years, the Argus has said that this question must be solved, and has said it at a time when others have avoided a direct discussion. This newspaper is absolutely one hundred per cent devoted to the best interests of the citrus industry. It would be folly to have any other policy. Everything that is possessed in the Covina area, including the newspaper, is due to the citrus industry. But no one, rancher or business man, householder or marine shipper, will gain anything by dodging this question any longer. If the situation were incurable it would be useless to agitate the question, but no difficulty has ever been found to be insurmountable in the history of the resourceful white race, and this newspaper believes that if this matter of eliminating smudge is brought to legislative action, a solution, indeed, perhaps a simple one, will be discovered. At all events, we cannot play the ostrich any longer.

"Experiments show that the trouble lies very largely in the fact that the heaters are not lighted until the temperature reaches the danger point, and that the necessity for heating quickly causes the grower to open the vents wide and run the pots at their maximum capacity of burning, with the result that a much higher percentage of carbon is produced, as well as valuable heat units lost. If the forecaster announces at seven in the evening that killing frosts will occur at three the next morning, the rancher does not feel justified in lighting up many hours in advance, although this procedure is strongly advocated. If all the area was heated in advance of the danger point, the pots could be regulated to a minimum of carbon discharge, and the groves would be as warm, or warmer, at the time predicted as the danger period. But is the expense prohibitive?

"And how is legislation to contro this? Must we have hundreds of night patrols in the employ of the stare or county, checking every orchard, making arrests, with subsequent fines? For, unless legislation is backed by strict supervision and penalties, it will be worthless. The real solution lies in calling upon science with a real determination, and in a new method of protection discovered and adopted. Every step of the progress of the citrus industry points to the fact that methods used years ago are now obsolete, in fumigation, in irrigation, in pruning, in fertilizing, in packing and shipping and marketing. All these have been improved. Real scientific investigation of orchard heating has never been asked for, or attempted.

"This question is one that concerns everybody in Southern California. It cannot be decided by drastic legislation in which the grower has not been asked to concur. Any action taken must be in his behalf as well as for the benefit of all others. We sink or swim together. But the principle thing is to do something, and do it intelligently. The longer the delay the greater the damage, and so much bad feeling may be engendered as to bring about some ill-considered action that we will all regret."

Many a common old cat would be able to recognize some of the so-called fancy fur coats going up the street as their father or mother if they weren't so greatly disguised and called by some fancy name.

Not So Bad

Beverly Hills Citizen: National business conditions for 1930 were not so bad.

An examination of the available data for the year shows that the performance of our enormous economic mechanism has been more favorable than is generally believed. When the first half of 1930 is averaged with the less satisfactory second half of the year it is found that business activity for the entire year was about 10 per cent below normal and only slightly more than 8 per cent below the average of the preceding five years.

The various phases of business have not been affected equally by the depression. Production, especially in the basic industries and in those the products of which have been subjected to artificial price control programs, has been most affected by prevailing influences. General trade has been least affected thereby. In other words, consumption has proceeded on a more nearly normal basis than has production. As a result, inventories have been reduced and the time brought nearer when increased fabrication will be necessary to build up depleted stocks and to replace wornout and obsolete goods. Particularly is this true of the building and automotive industries, the demands of which, in periods of activity, stimulate the whole business structure.

Turning now to the process of deflation from the untenable situation of 1929, several significant factors are to be observed. Prices of commodities at wholesale are now approximately 15 per cent lower than they were a year ago. Although a slight downward trend is still apparent, the range of fluctuations has narrowed perceptibly and evidences of an incipient horizontal movement are to be seen, both of which developments suggest the possibility of price stabilization at or near present levels. The situation is reassuring because improvement in business customarily follows not long after commodity prices have established an effective resistance level.

Poets Do Well Sometimes

Van Nuys Tribune: The Florida Times-Union tells of a poet down there who is doing unusually well. He sent three poems to a magazine and they sent five back to him. That reminds us of the old story about Oklahoma in the early days where, if you were not careful, when you bought a quarter-section of land they slipped in an extra 160 acres when you were not looking.

Insignificant?

Beverly Hills Citizen: Asa Keyes must have felt like a piker when he greeted Bessemyer.

BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

Established Jan. 3, 1831, the first building and loan association started a business that has helped millions. Year after year, new associations have been formed—to assist additional savers. The accomplishment of these pioneers pointed the way for others.

In America today there are more than THIRTEEN THOUSAND building and loan associations.

One person in every ten, appreciating the security and profit offered by these companies, has become a building and loan saver. The average investment reaches the excellent sum of $717.00 . . . and these accumulated savings bring the nation's building and loan resources to the staggering total of NINE BILLION DOLLARS!

Building and loan, with this vast financing power, is making of these United States a nation of homes. Its helpfulness has taken the burden out of home buying. Because of this seven out of every ten of those who want homes of their own are turning to building and loan associations for helpful financing. So it has been that out of that modest beginning ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO IN FRANKFORD—now Philadelphia—there has grown a great nation-wide business that has prospered in large cities and small hamlets through fostering those homely principles of thrift and home ownership that are the backbone of the nation and the anchor to its security.

Seen From a Chaffey Window

By One of the Faculty

Fifty years ago Old Baldy guarded a desert plain where jack rabbits played in the hot sun by day and whose silence was disturbed by the call of the coyote by night.

Men of foresight came who visioned in the desert orchards watered by the mountain streams, wide avenues lined with stately trees, happy homes and prosperous ranches, and schools for the children with a college to train leaders in the developing state.

Twenty years ago a high school opened its doors, bearing the name of the first of the pioneers—the Chaffey brothers, who laid out the Ontario colony. Small and unimportant at first, that school now has an attendance of nearly 2,000 in regular day classes in high school and junior college, and has carried the name "Chaffey" near and far, as its graduates have gone out in increasing numbers to take their place among the workers of the world.

This year the community will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the institution. There will be a home-coming of alumni and former students who will view with interest the growing institutions that bear the names of the early pioneers. Educational leaders from many parts of the state will be present. The formal dedication of the first unit of the new junior college building will be a feature of the occasion. All departments of Chaffey will share in the occasion, and the community organizations will have their part in the celebration that marks the close of two decades of service to the community and the state.

An unusual opportunity is offered at Chaffey next week, Friday and Saturday, in the presentation by the Shakespeare Guild of America of three of the plays of Shakespeare. The players have appeared in many parts of California, as well as throughout the United States, and have had splendid success in making the characters of Shakespeare living people to their audiences.

On that day special scout church services will be held. A court of honor will follow during the week.

It is planned a booth will be placed in the business section at which the present Boy Scouts and all former scouts will register and receive a badge. A similar celebration will be held in other cities in the Old Baldy council.

"Big Money" Opens California Tonight

One of the best pictures in point of true entertainment value shown in the Fox theatres this season is "Big Money," which comes to the Fox California theatre in Ontario tonight and Saturday. Thoroughly modern in theme and treatment, it is delightfully interpreted by a cast that includes Eddie Quillan, James Gleason and Robert Armstrong.

"Good News," picturized from the successful musical comedy of the same name, comes for three days beginning Sunday, and may be expected to duplicate the splendid business that marked its showings at the Granada.

Wednesday and Thursday "Three Faces East" will be shown for the first time in this section, with no advance in the California's prices. Eric von Stroheim and Constance Bennett head the cast.

Matinees are given every day at the California.

Upland Theater to Offer Variety in Week-End Pictures

Variety of pictures features the offerings at the Upland theater tonight, Saturday and Sunday and early next week.

Marilyn Miller in "Sunny" will be seen here for the last time tonight. Those who have seen the production say it is bigger, better and brighter than "Sally," in which Miss Miller formerly appeared.

Coming for one day only, Saturday, is "The Pay-off," with Lowell Sherman featured. "His Error," an all-talking comedy, and a flip the frog cartoon, "Soup Song," are additional attractions. "Humanettes" and Movietone News are also scheduled.

"The Lottery Bride" starts a three-day run Sunday. An all-star cast includes Jeanette MacDonald, John Garrick, Joe E. Brown, Robert Chrisholm and Joseph Macaulay.

The theater is always eager to do its part in furthering community interests and during the Christmas holidays conducted a charity matinee, with a can of goods the price of admission.

In listing the firms and individuals who had assisted in the community charity, the name of the Upland theater was not included. The theater took the lead in the effort and special recognition is due Robert E. Baker, manager, and the theater.

Wynn Among Stars To Be Seen Tonight at Granada Theater

Ed Wynn appears in his first talking picture, "Follow the Leader," at the Fox Granada theatre in Ontario tonight and Saturday. Wynn's success in this has been so great that Paramount considers him one of their greatest drawing cards. "Follow the Leader" is loaded with laughs.

On Sunday only the feature of the continuous show starting at 2:30 o'clock will be the delightful comedy "Part Time Wife," which has been made from the widely-read magazine serial "Shepper Newfoundland," and has scored one of the big hits of the year. Edmund Lowe and Liela Hyams have the principal roles. This picture is recommended by Manager Salisbury of the Fox Granada as superior entertainment.

Joan Crawford comes into her own as one of the really great actresses of the speaking screen in the powerful drama "Paid," coming Monday and Tuesday. Supported by a cast that includes Robert Armstrong, Marie Provost and Polly Moran, Miss Crawford gives a notable characterization of the shop girl who is sent to prison for a crime she did not commit, and who effects an ingenious revenge.

"The Princess and the Plumber" is the comedy drama that comes Wednesday and Thursday, with Charles Farrell and Maureen O'Sullivan in the leading roles.

"I'm in Partnership with 58,000 Employes and 45,000 Shareholders"

● "There are 58,000 employes receiving just wages keeping the wheels of Swift & Company going. Many of these employes are my neighbors. They live in this town, work here, build their homes. They patronize local merchants, pay taxes like you and me. Their interests are those of this community.

"I'm one of the 200,000 producers who deliver butterfat, eggs and poultry to a Swift & Company produce plant and receive cash for my products. There are more than 80 of these plants. And I'm also one of the 45,000 shareholders of this concern, who receive a return on their investment.

"It makes a big family, doesn't it? But we are all proud to belong to it and to do our part. It's a mighty fine thing to have contact with an organization which can thrive on an average margin of less than 2 cents on every dollar of its total sales, and yet—everyone receives a fair return for what he does.

"The 58,000 employes receive just wages; the 45,000 shareholders receive a return on their investments. The 200,000 producers get spot cash for their supplies and don't have to fear local gluts or shortages, for Swift's nation-wide distribution, through 600 car routes and 400 branch houses, assures them of an ever ready market.

"Next time you ask for Brookfield Butter, Brookfield Eggs or Golden West Fatted Fowl, remember that many of your own home folks take part in producing and marketing the supplies under those labels."

Social and Club News of Upland

Local Club Members Unite in Honoring Past Presidents

With a luncheon-program that was "different" and decidedly pleasing, its delightful arrangements being the happy inspiration of Mrs. George Gregg, program chairman, past presidents of the Upland Woman's club were honored at the meeting of the club held Tuesday noon in the clubhouse on Second avenue.

The delectable luncheon, the hosesses for which were Mrs. C. W. Hawks and Mrs. Etta Johnston, was served at 12:30, the club colors, olive and gold, being used in the artistic floral decorations and table appointments, with a special table prepared for the honor guests.

The past presidents attending the dinner were Mrs. F. H. Manker, 1910-1911, 1913-1914; Mrs. George W. Barlow, 1911-1912; Mrs. George Cable, 1912-1913; Mrs. R. C. Norton, 1917-1919; Mrs. V. H. Wilson, 1919-1921; Mrs. E. E. Hawthorne, 1921-1923; Mrs. L. D. Temple, 1925-1927, and the hostess, Mrs. George Gregg, 1906-1907. Three other past presidents residing in Upland but prevented from attending the meeting are Mrs. John Rarick, 1914-1916; Mrs. W. H. Tuttle, 1923-1925; and Mrs. J. E. Sargent, 1927-1929.

Two of those who served as president, Miss Clara Williams, 1904-1905, and Mrs. N. G. Pehl, 1909-1910, are deceased, and three others live out of town, they being Mrs. Ella Westland Beaubier, 1903-1904, 1907-1909, of Champion, Canada; Mrs. Alena Brown Dillman, 1905-1906, of Long Beach; and Mrs. Lansing T. Vedder, 1916-1917, of Los Angeles. A lovely bouquet of lavender sweetpeas and yellow daisies was placed by a vacant chair in memory of the two deceased past presidents.

With the club president, Mrs. Una R. Winter presiding, the usual formal opening ceremony was held and Mrs. Winter graciously extended greeting to the honor guests, happy response being made by Mrs. L. D. Temple. In her greetings Mrs. Winter presented to each past president one or more lovely carnations, according to the years of service.

Mrs. Gregg then assumed charge and cleverly introduced the past presidents also reading letters of kindly greetings from Mrs. Beaubier, Mrs. Dillman and Mrs. Vedder.

Calling attention to a copy of an original story to be found beside each plate, Mrs. Gregg requested each guest to fill in the blank spaces, this resulting in a clever story featuring each of the past presidents and at the same time providing much amusement.

A delightful piano duet, "Stars and Stripes Forever" was contributed by Mrs. W. R. Farmer and Mrs. Chas. H. Austin, being followed by a unique alphabetical stunt participated in by the past presidents and cleverly outlining the aims and aspirations of the club. In this number Mrs. Gregg called upon several members to represent the absentees, Mrs. J. H. Freeman for Mrs. Dillman; Mrs. Winter for Mrs. Beaubier; Mrs. J. F. Sawyer for Mrs. Rarick; Mrs. P. H. McQuillen for Mrs. Tuttle and Mrs. T. M. Nichols for Mrs. Sargent.

With Mrs. Gregg's special program concluded, Mrs. Leon Durham and Mrs. R. C. Norton, comedians of the Drama section, presented a well-acted skit in which the mistress (Mrs. Durham) attempted to instruct an inattentive maid (Mrs. Norton) in the art of proper table arrangement, many ludicrous situations resulting.

Altogether the meeting was a most delightful one and many compliments upon its success were heard.

The card section of the Upland Woman's club will hold a bridge tea at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock, it was announced by Mrs. Nora M. Eells. This is expected to be an enjoyable event and a large attendance is expected.

The request is made that those who contemplate attending make their reservations by Monday with Mrs. Eells, phone Upland 1124.

Miss Marjorie Tilden, Miss Edrie Milan and Miss Richeson, three night nurses of the San Antonio Community hospital, accompanied by Mrs. Tinsley Price of Etiwanda and Mrs. Mary Hayhurst of Ontario, motored to the Los Angeles playground Wednesday and enjoyed the winter sports, including ice skating and tobogganning.

Mrs. David Anderson Honored at Party

A delightful surprise party in honor of Mrs. David Anderson was given last evening at the home of Mrs. Roy Karr when Mrs. Anderson was the recipient of a lovely stork shower, cohostesses with Mrs. Karr being Mrs. Vivian Kirk, Miss Ruth Crane and Mrs. Clyde Whiteley.

The home was prettily decorated for the event, tall jars of bright poinsettias gracing the entrance hall, while lovely sweetpeas and greenery were used throughout the rooms.

Mrs. Anderson formerly was president of the Young Women's class of the Methodist church, and a number of members of the class united with other friends in the pretty courtesy accorded her, there being an attendance of 50 guests.

To Mrs. Anderson's great surprise and very evident pleasure, little Miriam Settle entered the room rolling a decorated wagon on which rested a lovely pink bassonette laden with daintily wrapped gifts, and stopped before Mrs. Anderson. Then Ilene Karr, small daughter of the hostess, cleverly recited the little verse, "Now, I Don't Want No Baby Brother."

The inspection of the lovely gifts which included the cleverly fashioned bassonette, afforded much pleasure for the large group of friends, and afterward a number of guessing games were played, prizes being won by Mrs. Ella Eastlack and Mrs. Charles Cunningham.

Concluding the party the guests were served delectable refreshments.

Choir Leader and Pianists Honored

At the monthly social meeting and dinner held last night in Crowell hall by the choir of the Upland Methodist church, 50 members of the choir and music committee and several members of their families were present.

A delectable contributed dish dinner was served and a merry hour was spent about the tables. During the evening a brief business meeting was conducted by the choir president, Mrs. W. M. Dundas, and a particularly pleasing feature of the social hour was the presentation of lovely gifts to the choir director, Mrs. Ralph J. Wilson, and the pianist, Mrs. Fannie Gay.

In presenting Mrs. Wilson's gift Mrs. M. H Bailey made an amusing talk, telling an apropos story, and Mrs. Ralph Marr recited a clever poem in her presentation of Mrs. Gay's gift.

The regular choir practice followed the dinner.

Conductor: "Say, how many are in this berth?"

Voice: "Just one, here's our ticket."

ADVANCE NEWS OF GOOD SHOWS GIVEN

Many Fascinating Travel Films Listed; Few Others Recommended

Comparatively few films came before the motion picture reviewing committee for the General Federation of Women's clubs during the period from Dec. 15 to Jan. 1, and of that limited number but few were given favorable comment and several were listed as decidedly not recommended.

There is, however, a bright spot in this latest report, that being a list of "short subjects" given under theater previews. These are for the greater part Tom Terriss vagabond adventures, Burton Holmes travelogues and Grantland Rice sportlights, all films that should be a delight on any theater program and always appropriate for junior matinees.

These pictures, especially the Terriss and Holmes series, not only are entertaining but intensely interesting, brimming with thrills and romance of real life in the far corners of the earth. These films are also truly educational, presenting real facts in a way that should fascinate even the most exacting of the pleasure-bent young folk.

This list includes "Wizard Land," a trip to head hunters village, "Monarch of the Field" a dog sports picture; "Burton Holmes Travelogues" with lectures, a series of pictures including "Sultan's Camp of Victory," "Tales of the Alhambra," "Peeps at Pekin," "Dublin and Nearby," "In Morocco" "Through the Yantze Gorges," "China's Old Man River," and Spain's Maddest Fiesta."

Among the reviewed films recommended are "Spell of the Circus," a serial junior matinee; "Fighting Thru," all ages, "Part Time Wives," family; "The Bat Whispers," adults and adolescents, and "Paid, "The Boudoir Diplomat," and "Just Imagine," all for adults.

W.R.C. and G.A.R. Install Officers; Plan For Dinner

Installation of officers for the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. was held Thursday afternoon, when members of those two organizations met in the Ontario American Legion hall.

During the regular meeting of the corps announcement was made of the meeting of Federation No. 2, W. R. C., to be held on the first Monday in February in the I. O. O. F. hall in Pomona. Plans also were made for the meeting of the Red, White and Blue club on the first Tuesday of next month and a decision was reached to entertain the G. A. R. comrades with the annual chicken dinner at the time of the next meeting of the corps, the third Thursday in February.

Mrs. Flora Perry, chairman of the relief committee, made a report of numerous visits to the sick and shut-ins, many being looked after.

After the business meeting the corps held a public installation, a number of visitors being present, including the G. A. R. comrades who had finished their installation, among them being seven comrades from Pomona.

Shakespeare's Life and Mysteries Told at Lions Meeting

Mystery concerning the life and works of William Shakespeare was discussed by Edward E. Gray, local attorney, at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in The Sycamores at noon today.

Rumors are prevalent in some circles that the works known as Shakespeare's were not written by the man with the famous name, Mr. Gray said, but it is his belief the rumors are unfounded and that the man with the famous name is the true author of the literature.

He described Shakespeare as having a brillliant mind and he said he joined others in declaring that when a man knows the Bible and Shakespeare's works, he has a liberal education.

Bruce Bower was in charge of the program and introduced Mr. Gray. Preceding the discussion of "Shakespeare's Mysteries," Norman S. Lawson told of a service club in Scotland established for more than 250 years.

Mr. Lawson previously told something of his recent trip to Scotland and in continuing that discussion yesterday, he told of the history and activities of the service club, meeting of which he attended last summer.

RED CROSS SENDS $100 FOR RELIEF

Local Chapter Gives Money; Contributions Sought For Sufferers

One hundred dollars was voted out of its funds at the quarterly meeting of the Upland chapter American Red Cross to send immediately toward the relief of the drought stricken area. The board members felt that the need was so great that there should be no delay. As fast as the public spirited citizens turn in their donations at the banks, the amounts will be forwarded to Pacific Division at San Francisco from where the call came.

Mrs. O. E. Atwood, chairman of Junior Red Cross, reported that the 50 boxes sent at Christmas time to the children of Guam had been received.

Five hundred and twenty-five members were enrolled during the Red Cross annual roll call adding $302.50 to the funds of Upland Chapter.

Mrs. Lottie Fuller, city nurse, reported 113 baby visits to the well baby clinic. Two hundred eighty-six visits were made to the homes of school children and 37 welfare visits were made. She also reported the Christmas work done through the Welfare committee who were assisted by the Upland chamber of commerce in distributing toys and food and clothing.

From the sale of tuberculosis seals at Christmas time, the Welfare committee has a nice little sum toward the milk fund. Many may not know it but for ten months last year five quarts of milk were supplied to families with children who needed this nourishing food and this milk was bought with proceeds of the sale of Christmas seals, 98 per cent of the total amount

Mr. Atwood said there has been no special opposition to the plan of joining the city arise among residents of the district. Annual meeting of the company is next week, when definite plans may be made to present the question to all the district residents.

HIGH HONOR WON BY PEDRO ESPINO

Local Mexican Scout Worker Given Scholarship For Outstanding Work

Pedro Espino, Upland Mexican youth who in the past year or two has attracted much attention by his outstanding work among Mexican Boy Scouts, has been awarded a signal honor, according to a telegraphic message received Wednesday by A. O. Alderson of Pomona, scout executive of Old Baldy council, from James E. West of New York, chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America.

The message read:

"We are happy to announce the approval by the executive board of the recommendation of the court of honor awarding Scout Pedro Espino of your council the Harmon Foundation scholarship for 1930. Kindly inform Scout Espino and his parents and extend my personal congratulations."

One of 52 such scholarships given outstanding Boy Scouts of the United States, this award entitles young Espino to $100 to be used toward his education, with privilege of borrowing from the Harmon Foundation without endorsement, and a commemorative medal. Only Eagle Scouts under the age of 21 years are eligible and four awards are made in each region, this region including California, Nevada, Utah and Arizona.

The Harmon Foundation of New York was founded by Wm. E. Harmon to provide recognition for Eagle Scouts performing outstanding, unselfish service of some constructive character to their own troop, church or community. To receive the award the Eagle Scout must have put into practice in his daily life the ideals and principles of the Scout oath and law, and have attained high scholarship. Thus will be seen the high honor attaching to the award.

The 18-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Espino, 725 East G street, Pedro has become an outstanding leader among Mexican youths, under the tutelage of Lex Lucas, Chaffey executive, now being scoutmaster for seven troops. Five of these troops he organized last year, the work being made possible by the financial assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Winter who are much interested in these activities. The career of this Mexican youth also has been closely followed by P. H. McQuillen, whose assistance and council have encouraged Pedro in his educational efforts.

Young Espino graduated from the Upland junior high school five years ago and is now a Los Angeles junior college student in Los Angeles.

PIGEON FANCIERS ARE ACTIVE HERE

Chaffey Maintains Only Contest of Kind in Nation, Delhauer Reports

That Chaffey has the only contest among pigeon fanciers in the nation, that there are more students with pigeon projects in the Cucamonga district than any other part of the Chaffey empire, and that entries from eastern states have already been received for the new pigeon contest to start Feb. 1, were statements today of Ray Delhauer, in charge of the pigeon work at Chaffey.

The Palmetto pens of Sumter, S. C., won the contest which ended Dec. 31, it was reported.

Mr. Delhauer is in correspondence with pigeon fanciers in many states and with the start of this year has added "Upland" to the address of the pigeon center. Only "Ontario" was used previously. Entries have been received from Michigan, Wisconsin and Arizona for the new event.

In telling of the new contest, Mr. Delhauer said that great interest is taken by all pigeon raisers and that students in the Upland district, and especially in Cucamonga, are close followers of the enterprise.

Entrants in the contest are to donate a pair of pigeons for two years. Two pairs of youngsters per pair will be saved each year to replace birds, and all others will be sold to defray expenses.

The birds are judged on the amount they produce and their performance during the contest.

Leader Named For Junior Farm Fair

Charles Birdsall, Chaffey agricultural student, has been elected president of the Future Farmers of America, and he will also head up affairs in planning for the junior farm center fair.

Election was held yesterday. Others being chosen were: Horace Williams, vice-president, and Wilson Zyrd, secretary.

These students and C. A. Perrin, agricultural director, will go to Escondido tomorrow for an agricultural teachers' conference.

Local Forest Will Get Share of Funds

California's share in the receipts from the national forests within the state is $406,877 for the fiscal year 1930, or almost 14 per cent more than for the previous fiscal year, according to Regional Forester S. B. Show of the U. S. Forest Service. This amount has just been turned over to the state and will be distributed among the 39 counties in which national forests are located.

PEDRO ESPINO MAY HEAD MEXICO TOUR

Plan For Eagle Scout Trip Told at Meeting in Pomona

That plans are being made for a number of American Eagle Scouts, headed by Pedro Espino, scout executive for the seven Mexican troops, to tour Mexico during the coming summer, was announced by A. O. Alderson, scout executive for Old Baldy council, at a meeting held Saturday night in the Scout lodge in Pomona.

The purpose of the tour will be to acquaint the people of Mexico with the work, the aims and purposes of Boy Scouts, Senor Espino being well able to bear such a message to his people, he himself being an Eagle Scout.

The meeting Saturday was the result of a call by Senor Espino to the scoutmasters and committeemen of all the Mexican troops and was attended by 20 men, about half of whom were Mexicans.

The purpose of the meeting was to continue the work of developing leadership among the Mexicans and also to plan for future activities, including a Mexican court of honor to be held during the latter part of March in Claremont. A concerted effort is being made by scout officials to arouse an increasing interest in scouting among the Mexican boys.

Among the scout officials of Upland attending the meeting were R. H. Henderson, Geo. L. Winter, Pedro Espino and V. B. Anderson.

Mr. Henderson expressed deep gratification over the program of activities that is being carried on by the Mexican troops, and Mr. Winter, through whose financial assistance the work has been made possible, declared himself as being highly pleased with the progress being made.

Senor Espino, speaking in Spanish, explained to the Mexicans present the work of Boy Scouts, and V. B. Anderson, principal of the Sierra Vista school for Mexicans and organizer of Troop No. 2, the first Mexican troop, reviewed the work of scouting and outlined the best methods of organization and operation among the Mexican youths.

All attendants at the meeting were enthusiastic over the prospects for the Mexican troops.

FIRST CHRISTIAN, ONTARIO

A notable characteristic of the stated meetings at the Ontario First Christian church is the number of people in attendance from nearby communities.

"The Most Powerful Force in the World Today" is to be the theme Sunday evening. "It is not always easily discernible that such is the case," says the minister, Shirley R. Shaw, "but careful observation will reveal the fact that this force is the love of Christ."

With such a theme Sunday evening brings to a climax a series of special messages upon the character of Jesus. A lovely musical program has been prepared for this last hour of the series, including the beautiful trio, "Father, Lead Me," to be sung by Mrs. Fred Reed, Mrs. Shirley R. Shaw, and Ed. Middough.

GAS TANKS READY FOR BIG PRESSURE

Southern Counties Gas Co. Completes Facilities For Storage

Two new high pressure gas storage holders under construction in Ontario by the Southern Counties Gas company, have just been completed and were placed in service recently, after passing pre-service tests conducted by company engineers, according to an announcement made today by C. G. Spencer, district manager for the company. With the addition of the new holders the local high pressure natural gas storage station will be the third largest in the world.

The new holders are constructed of steel plates one inch thick, riveted and electrically welded throughout, capable of withstanding a working pressure of 50 pounds to the square inch.

An automatic control station regulates the filling and discharging of each holder.

Storage facilities of the two holders totals 1,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas, and brings the capacity of the storage station to 1,550,000 cubic feet. An investment of $94,000 is represented in the new structures, making a capital investment of $160,000 in natural gas storage facilities for the district.

ALTA LOMA

ALTA LOMA, Jan. 15.—Mrs. John Belcher and her three little girls have returned from Abilene, Texas, where she spent the Christmas holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Guitar.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Joseph, formerly of Alta Loma, but now living in Midway City, were in their old neighborhood Tuesday calling on the Stoebes and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Meeker of Pasadena recently bought the old Foster place on Foothill boulevard and Hermosa avenue and are out working on their new place every day. They plan to locate here permanently soon. The Meekers are the parents of Mrs. Russell Buchanan, Alta Loma.

Mrs. W. W. Hatch was in Pasadena Tuesday shopping and visiting her niece, Mrs. H. L. Parker.

Mrs. A. C. Beattie and daughter, Miss Margaret, went to Los Angeles Saturday to shop and to attend a matinee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Kincaid, now of Balboa, were in the Alta Loma district a few days attending to business interests.

Miss Ina Demens has returned from her four months trip in the Far East and India.

The first meeting of the Alta Loma Community club, with Gordon Billings as president, will be held Friday night in the regular club rooms on Lomita drive. There will be a dinner and cards afterward with all members and their ladies invited.

Midnight Prowling

Virgil Davis and Gordon Billings came home last night very late. Of all the things they saw en route nothing intrigued them to the point of stopping until they thought they saw a bear dash wildly up Hellman avenue in front of their car. Unable to resist the fleeing camel, they got out of the car and bystanders—if any—could have seen the two men racing up the sloping street after the elusive elephant.

"Ah!" cries Gordon, "there's your chance."

Swishshsh!—the rope flew from the hand of Mr. Davis, a la Tom Mix, and became taut.

Anyhow, it was an oppossum, and the proof lies in back of Mr. Billings' store.

Water Companies Meet

The Sunset Water company held its annual meeting Tuesday at the residence of Ray Wagner, Alta Loma. Following are those elected to serve as the board of directors: Belcher, Brown, Olive, Miller and Wagner.

The Cucamonga Water company held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday in their offices on San Bernardino road. They are building two new store rooms adjacent to their office for use in storing equipment and tools. The officers of the company are giving their pumping equipment the annual overhauling this week.

Notice to Members of Los Serranos

H. Rockey, phone Ontario, 665. The luncheon tickets are $1.25.

A. S. Stevens, superintendent of the Spanish-American institute at Gardena, and state chairmen and chapter officers will be the speakers.

Another Death in the Blanchard Home

Following an illness of eight months, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hymer died Tuesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. L. Blanchard, widow of Dr. Blanchard, widely known eye specialist of Claremont.

Mrs. Hymer formerly lived in Los Angeles and funeral service was held at 11:30 this morning in the Lawson F. Utter chapel in the city. J. B. Draper & Co. was in charge of arrangements.

Shooting in Groves Cited as Dangerous

Practice of some persons in shooting in groves and on the streets was today described as dangerous to residents and workmen in the groves.

T. R. Woodbridge reported that frequently guns have been fired in various parts of the citrus district and that one family returned home to find four bullet holes in their house.

Workmen have reported hearing shots and the whine of bullets through the air. He asked that consideration be given the workmen and residents of the groves for the practice is dangerous and an annoyance.

TIGERS FACE FIVE FROM COUNTY SEAT

San Bernardino Here For Game Today; Jaysee Goes to Pomona

With only one defeat against them, Chaffey high school meets the San Bernardino quintet this afternoon, and chances are bright for another local victory.

Coach Kaiser planned to start his regular first string. Each game has seen the quintet get nearer its outstanding form of a year ago and the battle this afternoon found the players in good shape.

Chaffey junior college plays the Pomona jaysee in an easy game tomorrow night. San Bernardino Indians, however, have made it necessary for the Panthers to redeem themselves. In a game on Wednesday night, San Bernardino won over Chaffey 27 to 23.

Next week the Tigers play at Redlands and jaysee meets Santa Monica here.

Gun Shoot Will Net Merchandise Prizes

Many gunmen from all parts of the southland as well as a large number of local shooters are expected to compete at the Izaak Walton League merchandise shoot at Lone Hill Sunday.

Sponsored by the Old Baldy chapter, the shoot will bring together men competing for valuable prizes. This is the first of a series of shoots to be sponsored by the chapter.

Junior High Wins Second Chaffey Game

Upland junior high school continued its basketball success yesterday by defeating Chaffey "A" team 36-20.

Fred Zimmerman garnered 14 points as the high scorer. Other players and scoring totals were: Denzel Kearney, 6; Clarence Drake, 8; John Meek, 8, and Howard Roberds.

The local team plays Fontana on Thursday.

Monday, the Upland team defeated Chaffey team "B."

Foothill Boulevard at Claremont Model Stretch of Highway

A number of Upland people attended the celebration of the opening of the new stretch of Foothill Blvd. at Claremont Tuesday, both afternoon and evening. At the evening festivities, which included a dinner at the Claremont Inn given by the Claremont chamber of commerce to representatives from various cities along Foothill, a number of prominent men spoke of the splendid piece of work Claremont had done in this regard, the new piece of pavement through that city being regarded as a model for other towns and cities to follow.

That section of the pavement now completed is for through traffic only on this much traveled main boulevard. Further plans call for pavement on either side of that already finished for local traffic. Between these various strips of pavement will be planted trees, shrubbery and flowers and when completed the project will make not only for the most convenient and safe method of travel, but will also be a thing of beauty.

The city of Claremont had the cooperation and assistance of the county and state in this project and it is the hope of highway officials that the plan will be adopted by many other cities through which these main arteries of traffic pass. We understand the width of the street when all paved lanes are in will be 200 feet.

Frank Wheeler, veteran real estate man of Claremont, who has been secretary of the Foothill Blvd. Assn. ever since it was organized, gave a history of the organization and its accomplishments up to the present.

Talks on Thrift Made at Meeting Parent-Teachers

Thrift, particularly as applied to school children, was discussed Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Tenth street P. T. A. when the association sponsored a program in recognition of natioal thrift month.

The speaker was R. C. Norton, manager of the Upland branch of the Bank of America, and he was accompanied by A. P. Stepnik, field representative for the Bank of America.

Mr. Norton discussed informally "Thrift and School Savings," telling of methods employed in educating children in habits of thrift and the benefits of such education when adult years are reached. Mr. Stepnik spoke of the actual operation of the savings accounts and both addresses were of much interest as well as practical benefit.

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Harold Stickney, announcement was made of the student loan fund benefit program to be given at the Ontario junior high school on Friday evening, Jan. 23.

A plan to sponsor a course of lectures by Dr. Regina Westcott of Los Angeles was discussed and a committee was appointed to investigate the proposition.

As a part of the program a number of enjoyable musical selections and readings were given. Dorothy Manley contributed piano numbers, Miriam Settle gave a reading and Miss Marion Short played a group of violin selections.

SCOTTY'S CASTLE RICH IN LUXURY

Visitors See Work of Five Years and Hear Plans For Future

Some Uplanders have visited Death Valley Scotty's palatial desert home, and many want to, and it was the good fortune recently of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Frasher and son of Pomona to be the guest of the famous man of mysterious money.

One of Scotty's best boosters in Upland is P. H. McQuillen, who is displaying in the Mac. the Medicine Man store, some of the pictures taken by the Pomonans. The visitors found Scotty cordial and "threw open" his extensive establishment for inspection and their enjoyment.

Mr. McQuillen pointed out that Scotty will receive no money from guests who are invited to remain with him. "And not a nickel can be spent there," the mayor added, "for it isn't that kind of an institution."

Groups of men were at work all about the grounds when the visitors started their inspection. Skilled workmen and Indian laborers have been working steadily for five years on buildings. The Frashers learned of features of the work in short interviews with the landscape gardener and masons laying tile along the top of the finished portion of a wall started around a hillside; also with a cement contractor who had charge of a score of men preparing for a huge lake in front of the castle; also with an iron worker in a tunnel which extends under the lake to the living quarters being built there. Sunken gardens are to be on top of these rooms and will be electrically lighted so they can be seen from the shore through the lake's glass bottom. It was said that 25 years will be required for completion of work now planned.

Steam shovels were at work excavating a hillside near the huge clock tower. From this four-sided clock tower, chimes are played every quarter of an hour.

Skilled craftsmen have hand carved and hewn out every board or piece of wood visible in the great castle, the cook house, the guest home, the huge garage and the superintendent's office and quarters.

The rails of the stairway around the balcony circling the huge living room are carved wood and wrought iron. The rugs of the balcony railing are from Arabia, real tapestries hang on the walls, and tile tops of the tables are from Italy. From every window throughout the castle are hung huge draperies, made of many pieces of leather, hand laced together. Floors are are made of tile imported from Europe. Hand carved beds are all works of master craftsmen, as are the huge bookcases, writing desks, chairs and tables in each bedroom. Panelled walls in the dining room and the gorgeous dining table are hand carved.

In the living room is a huge rock grotto which extends from the floor to the arched ceiling 75 feet above. The rocks are of all colors, each bearing precious ores, and were gathered by Scotty from his various mines.

Comfortably lounging in the huge leather seats, with Scotty in his favorite chair before the fire, the visitors were regaled with their host's stories of days gone by. To a remark about the fire, Scotty replied, "I have enough railroad ties to burn a fire like that in all 14 fireplaces every night for a hundred years."

Upland Buyers See Spring Style Show

The Los Angeles manufacturers' annual spring style show, held Wednesday night in the Shrine auditorium in Los Angeles, was an important event in merchandising circles in the Pacific southwest, the attendance numbering about 5,000 and many buyers coming from the states west of the Rocky mountains.

Among those attending from Upland were Mr. and Mrs. Owen E. Atwood, Mrs. Mark H. Bailey and Miss Nelle Atherton, of the J. J. Atwood store, and Mrs. Cless D. Grier of the Cless D. Grier shop. Mrs. Bailey spent the day in the city buying in the wholesale stores for the store and joined the others in the evening.

It perhaps is not generally realized to what great extent the clothing manufacturing industry has been developed in Los Angeles, and especially the leadership in advanced fashions attained by the manufacturers. Because of the influence of the cinema, Hollywood styles, designed and manufactured in Los Angeles, are in demand in every market and style leaders who once looked to the east, to London and Paris, for inspiration are often looking westward to see what is coming from Hollywood.

At the style show Wednesday night the local buyers gained much information concerning the fashions for the coming season.
